

CONRAD
W. H. HUDSON
GALSWORTHY AND

H. E. BATES

are the discoveries of Edward Garnett, dean of the English critics. Mr. Bates makes his bow to American readers with a novel of astounding skill and insight into the lives of two girls and of their love for the man, Michael, written by a twenty-one-year old Englishman. $2.00

THE TWO SISTERS