NEW FICTION

Miss Storm Jamieson's Very Queer, Very Good Novel

By H. E. BATES

Miss Storm Jamieson is the author of "The Book in Making," which has been favorably reviewed. The book presents a picture of the English countryside, with its rural life and customs, and is written in a style that is both concise and readable. The characters are well-drawn and the plot is well-developed. Miss Jamieson has a keen eye for detail and her descriptions of the landscape are particularly striking. Overall, "The Book in Making" is a delightful and engaging read for anyone interested in rural English life.

Teaching Tales

SOME OF ALIEN

By G. F. Williams

All That Novels Men (Author). New Forest Press, 6.60.

Novels Men have been favorably reviewed, and are considered to be a good introduction to the world of fiction. They are well-written and offer a unique perspective on life and society. The characters are well-developed and the plots are engaging. Overall, novels Men are a great read for anyone interested in fiction.

Books of the Year

Thy Shout Men

They Shoot Horrers, Don't They? (Author). New Forest Press, 6.60.

"They Shoot Horrors, Don't They?" is a new book by the popular author. It is a story of a young man who discovers a secret society that kills those who commit atrocities. The book is well-written and offers a unique perspective on the nature of evil. The characters are well-developed and the plot is well-developed. Overall, "They Shoot Horrors, Don't They?" is a great read for anyone interested in horror fiction.