

Reproduced by kind permission of Evensford Productions Limited and Pollinger Limited. Copyright c Evensford Productions Limited, 1924.

D7 THE SPRING SHEPHERD

Kettering & District Reminder, T. Beaty Hart Ltd, Kettering. 23 April 1924, i, 8, p 20

THE SPRING SHEPHERD

*Upon the quiet hills of day
His lambs are lovely things;
He tends them in his own sweet way
Upon the quiet hills of day,
For he's a shepherd kinder than
All shepherds since the world began.*

*Within the dusky fold of night
He scarcely hears them breathe,
Yet every one is his delight;
Within the dusky fold of night
Surrounded by his lambs and sheep
I wonder if he goes to sleep?*

*For ever with the quiet things
He will not tell his name;
Instead, it is his heart that sings
For ever of the quiet things,
And shows the thoughts he guards to keep
Are lovelier than his lambs and sheep.*