

Reproduced by kind permission of Evensford Productions Limited and Pollinger Limited. Copyright c Evensford Productions Limited, 1937.

AY - Edited by E. B. Osborn

Socialist NEW FICTION "Biting Clarity, Deep Insight, and Humour"

By H. E. BATES Dinosaur Tracks. By Benedict Thiesen. (Martin Secker and Warburg, 7s. 6d.)

The average English reader rarely sees the "New Yorker," that incomparable magazine of dry irreverence, wit, and caustic satire...

When his childhood moves more very hard for Mr. Swinerton's plate engraver when he was dying out...

The Subtle Flavours The reader of "Dinosaur Tracks" in fact, needs to hunt for its fullest appreciation...

THE RED,

shared with Seattle luxury. Was there not a sense of lameness in the story about...

MEDIUMS

dition, Being the Life of Daniel Dunglas Home (Wyndham)

mediumship did not The Witch of Endor reactioner, and the heavy a woman, is a the spiritual annals of where the reward for revelations might be make. In the famous the Seventeenth Century, the medium (law, and the demon's spirits, might give her line, which was said, it is so difficult to "psychic" matters history of the whole been written. If were to be under would find Mr. "Life of Daniel Dunglas Home" for he does a fair balance of the respectable opinions of the whole genus of the matter is a dead is too well known to the post diluted with the occult, and Home's vitriolic attack was a resentment that has been crowned with a wreath of strews being strews Howard's judgment in its ordered the return of from a silly old described him as the Next Column.)

I SP

On the eve of one of the history of civil war, Ben His story is one of our the shadow of the grim must come failed to do it is a profoundly imit

By BERN

Illustrated in Colour,

WYI MA

Old Manor Crim Ever since the day of Trent has gone from its latest adventure which meet any of his previous

LUKE

The Man on a of Here is a story of a d the shadow of the grim prove just as popular.

CH RU

Night of Murder Charles Rushton ranks horror stories and his might well be proud.

RICHA

Marinova of the S Mr. Essex has written a the master criminal, I thrills from the very story of the year.

HERB

A PEN THE

A rollicking, full An unashamed roguery triumph Vitriolic satire an Whole-hearted in and corruption Mr. Brecht has powerful magnify and plot Dickensian in its out with amazing CHRISTOPHER ISHERWOOD modern satires"

ROBERT HALL & COMPANY

R MAC

"I WOULD

"This br A gem

H.B.C.

The Incomparable Emmony, A Hint the Maudslayi Bay Company, Douglas MacKay, (Gosnell), The Foundations of our Western Empire were well and truly laid by Company of Adventurers of En trading into Hudson's Bay." It is that its history should be written in the last of Europe's grandest in the two-and-a-half centuries. Douglas MacKay has the good of first-hand evidence, such as the of Hudson's Bay, and the most thorough details of his voyages and company's contemporary life. He is by of a Peckham, but in lowest its intricate problems of self-governance

FRANKLIN COSTUME OF THE BLACK FOREST by Miss D. M. Pettigrew (Black is 6s.), is a very charmingly done book, in the style of Messrs. Black's well-known volumes on costume, illustrated both in pen and ink. Admirable for those interested in present art and tradition, admirable also to take with you as a companion to Blackadder on a Black Forest holiday.

(Continued from Preceding Column.)

Franklin exponent of deliberate deception, was another cunning blow. Paris, France, and Italy's ridiculed Roman traditions, but Crocker and Russell and the others, in his own name, never, all interested in spiritualism, whether for or against its claims, will find Mr. Wyndham's biography well worth reading.