

Reproduced by kind permission of Evensford Productions Limited and Pollinger Limited. Copyright c Evensford Productions Limited, 1940.

The Hogarth Press

suggest the following books
you should not miss

- ★FOLIOS OF NEW WRITING (5s.), which H. E. Bates in Books of the Month declares to be "the only serious attempt to remedy the fact that the English literary periodical is dead." The New Statesman: "The present number makes an excellent counterblast to those who think that only trash should be written in war time . . . thank goodness New Writing is still alive to delight us."